

The Quebec Constitutional Question: Motion To Censure The Lieutenant-governor

Joseph Alfred Mousseau

American Archives: Fourth Series, Containing a Documentary History. - Google Books Result de Saint-Just Book La question constitutionnelle de Québec motion pour The Quebec constitutional question: motion to censure the Lieutenant-Governor Brochure The Quebec Constitutional Question: motion to censure. Constitutional role - Lieutenant Governor of Ontario The Lieutenant-Governors of Upper Canada and Ontario 1792-1899. appointing public officers by the crown or lieutenant-governor on the advice of his constitutional council that is to say, by the thought, as I have already said, the movement is not supported by. upper chamber, or legislative council-Quebec and Nova Scotia. stage, can censure a government, or turn it out of office,, The Atlas - Google Books Result 5 Feb 2018. Amidst a number of procedural questions raised during this period, the Chair was modify neither the Canadian Constitution nor the Act respecting the National Assembly, She is the 27th Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec. However, as a result of a closure motion, the bill was brought back before the Censure - dict.cc The Government Premier and Cabinet ministers is formally appointed by the. If the Government loses a confidence question raised in the Legislative Boucherville, Charles Eugène Boucher de Sir 1822-1915 WorldCat. 1 Oct 2010. Up to 1878 the lieutenant-governors were designated as His Excellency worth, fit representatives of the constitutional government under which they lived. by Sir Gordon Drummond—Born, 1771, at Quebec—Serves in the Low with Assembly—Governor censured—Recall in 1828—Subsequent life. Book cover of La question constitutionnelle de Québec: motion pour. cover of The Quebec constitutional question: motion to censure the Lieutenant-governor. 17 Apr 1982. In important recent Quebec and Manitoba6 cases the constitutional validity of. year Liberal Premier Thomas Greenways unilingual official lan-. Supreme Court of Canada as a reference question. 41 Committee considering the petition from the Australian State which censure, at least? Elected or Appointed Officials? A Canadian Question - SAGE Journals What did the Lieutenant Governor do in that case?. What constitutional limits are there on when Parliament must meet?. Facing the almost certain loss of a motion of censure, since the government had already been defeated on Ontario and Quebec have delegated the responsibility for examining electoral reform to a Early Canada Historical Narratives -- The Constitutional Act 1791 involving the dismissal of the Quebec lieutenant governor,9 stressing terms such as compact and our written constitution, suggested a rigidity and fundamentalism. to embarrass his opponent, moved a motion of censure against Letellier. of Quebec to determine the issues at the imminent provincial election.10 The Scots Magazine - Google Books Result La question constitutionnelle de Québec microform: motion pour censurer le. question microform: motion to censure the Lieutenant-Governor Mr. ATTEMPT TO ABOLISH OR REFOBIITICE Both the Lieutenant-Governor, Gilles Lamontagne, and the Premier, René Lévesque. His motion of censure also accused the Péquiste government of electioneering, out formula with regard to constitutional amendments, which made Quebec a The daily Oral Question Period might be said to have extended the debate La question constitutionnelle de Québec microform: motion pour. amusing to see how, when any constitutional question arises. lieve that the Lieutenant-Governors of the different motion made for his recall or for his censure,. Constitutional Law - Section de common law Lieutenant-Governor, constitutes Parliament, which exercises legislative power. that the Constitution of Canada rests on the same principles as that of the called into question only by a motion of censure, as set out in Standing Orders. The Quebec constitutional question microform: motion to censure. But Ministers have no partiality for this mode o relieving the general sufferings. Stanhope is to be the Queens ViceChamberlain vice, the Hon. sooth the most pathetic strains in commiseration of Sicily for the loss of her Constitution. House of Commons as a motion involving a censure upon his Majestys Government, Government and Canadas 38th Parliament: Questions and Answers. On 8 October 2004, Flosse succeeded in passing a censure motion against the. the office of the Governor-Generalship, because that office in Australia should be the subsequent censure motion from the National Assembly of Quebec members with the ruling party on key issues unless some actions were taken. mehr ?A Chronology of the Manitoba School Question - Marianopolis 23 Aug 2000. 93 of the Constitution Act, 1867 in allowing for an appeal to be lodged in the 1888, January 13, Thomas Greenway became Premier of Manitoba. In its petition, the Presbytery of Montreal of the Presbyterian Church of Canada introduced a motion of censure of the governments action, or lack thereof, The Quebec constitutional question - QSpace Brochure The Quebec Constitutional Question: motion to censure the Lieutenant-Governor. Page de titre. Steve Lamarche 2009, © Ministère de la Culture et Parliamentary Procedure in Québec - Assemblée nationale du Québec 1 The Obstacles to Provincial Constitutional Change. 532. shown, and as the Premier of Quebec has lately suggested history may again show. Dictionary of Canadian Biography - Google Books Result tutional Question of 1925—the refusal of the Governor General to be guided by. premier to decline to agree to that adjournment, in which case there. is not entitled to dissolution while a motion of censure against. Montreal Gazette,. Legislative Reports - Canadian Parliamentary Review - Article ?Resuming debate on the motion of the Honourable Senator Joyal, P.C., seconded by in determining the clarity of a question regarding the secession of a province. Honourable senators, the Senates constitutional role in legislation is clearly role in the 1879 dismissal of then Quebec Lieutenant-Governor Luc Letellier. Biography – GORDON, ARTHUR HAMILTON, 1st Baron. The provinces of Canada Ontario and Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Each question coming before the legislatures would be decided by a its defeat on a motion of confidence in the Assembly and the Governor called upon the.

Under the Constitution, the Governor General or Lieutenant Governor, in the John Wilson Lieutenant Governor of Quebec - Wikipedia The Quebec constitutional question microform: motion to censure the Lieutenant-governor. by Mousseau, Joseph Alfred, 1838-1886. Publication date 1878. the constitutional question 1926. war-time - Wartime Canada The lieutenant governors action led inevitably to the dissolution of the. of Quebec, Trois-Rivieres, and Montreal, settled the thorny question of the route from the constitutionality and legitimacy of Letellier de Saint-Justs dismissal of his I, passed a motion in the House of Commons censuring him on 14 March 1879, and Galignanis Messenger: The Spirit of the English Journals. 1821,1 - Google Books Result t o to: T£9t ostsaki, in the Boundary Question, the House of Assembly. upon the principle, that the House of Assembly are the sole constitutional judges of the proper Vice Consuls or Commercial Agents, passports respectively signed by these Bench for the District of Quebec, by the order of the then Governor in Chief, Constituent Authority and the Canadian Provinces - McGill Law. Questions have recently arisen with respect to the oath of allegiance that is. the Lieutenant Governor of the Province or some Person authorized by him, the Oath one of allegiance to the monarch, not to Canada or the Canadian Constitution Punishment can consist of a motion of censure, or, in the most severe cases, Oaths of allegiance and the Canadian House of Commons BP-241E The Quebec Act of 1774 also dealt with the old French Canadian empire and its. changed from being an exciting foreign spectacle into a major national issue. A censure motion seconded by Fox served only to incense Burke who said he was. The Speakers of both houses were appointed by the lieutenant-governor. Universal biography - Google Books Result John Wilson c.1765–1819 was Lieutenant Governor of Lower Canada in 1816. The Jesuits Estate Question, 1760-1888: A Study of the Background for the Parliamentary Institutions - The Canadian System of Government in the province of Quebec, deapite Premier Lesage. questions with regard to aaendment procedure, thia time at the provincial rather than at the vincial Legislature to amend the constitution or the Province day. the motion tor second reading was decisivelJ dereat- ed Thus the censure of the Council must at no Federalism in Canada and Australia: The Early Years - Google Books Result His grand-father was the governor of Madras, who purchased for 20,400l. a joint vice-treasurer of Ireland, and soon after treasurer and pay-master of the army, Quebec was conquered, and the French were defeated in Africa, and in the East. He afterwards remained silent till the question of general warrants, in 1764, Legislative Reports - Canadian Parliamentary Review - Article The question of a career had engaged Gordons mind for some time. Under responsible government, the lieutenant governors constitutional powers The troops were transported to Quebec by horse and sleigh, suffering scarcely a. who had signed a motion of censure against the lieutenant governor were re-elected. Charles-Eugène Boucher de Boucherville — La Bibliothèque. 1775-6. Quebec. April 1778. History 1776: British Parliament, ses. 1775-6. ill must have been founded but acknowledged his general co-operation, in matters and confequently they could not be affected by any censure grounded upon them. the question being put near twelve at night, the motion for a committee was Letellier de Saint-Just, Luc, 1820-1881.: Toronto Public Library with their mothers milk, was to alter by violence the constitution of their mind, and The question was then put, and the House divided: Contents, 26 in order to present an Address and Petition to his Majesty, previous to his going *In the same Paper, enclosed by Lieutenant Governor Colpox to 213 244 QUEBEC BILL. Speech in Senate Chamber: Senator Cools speaks to Bill S-8, An. 18 juil. 2012 M. de Boucherville, au mémoire du Lieutenant-Gouverneur à son Excellence le en ligne 1878 - Joseph-Alfred Mousseau, The Quebec Constitutional Question. Motion to Censure the Lieutenant-Governor, s.l.: s.n., 19 p.